TACOS

- Mas Tacos - it's a total dive, but you will stand in line & you will order the fried avocado taco

FANCY DINNER

- City House
- Rolf and Daughters
- Kayne Prime

NASHVILLE HOT CHICKEN

- Prince's Hot Chicken - the original but it takes forever and you should not go alone
- Hattie B's - the most commercially successful
- Slow Burn - Where those in the know travel to a hole-in-the-wall strip mall and dine on Hot Chicken, Hot Fish and Hot Shrimp

BREAKFAST

- The Pancake Pantry - you will stand in line but it moves fast
- Biscuit Love - Andrew Zimmern prefers the East Nasty
- Loveless Cafe - to die for biscuits and homemade peach jam
- Frothy Monkey - for coffee!!
- Puckett's Grocery - sweet potato pancakes is all I have to say!

SHOPPING & MUSIC

- 12 South - if you make no other stops White's Mercantile is the best. It's an incredible store in an old gas station. Just up the street is Draper James and you can skip on over to Imogene and Willies and get custom jeans like Mr. Bullish himself!
- The Gulch - Visit Two Old Hippiess and two doors down is another Mr. Chaney and John Wayne favorite, Luchesse Boots!
- Green Hills Mall - great If you are a mall person then two streets down is the Hills Center!
- Cabana Taps - Live music featuring up-and-coming songwriters!
- Check out Printers Alley for more live music and good drinks.
- Some of our favorite spots on Broadway: AJ's Good Time Bar, Honky Tonk Central, Ole Red and Tootsie's Orchid Lounge.
